C.D.

Dear Diary . . .
There are so many things we will never forget -
Our school and our friends so
dear;

Nightly Notes

And though we've had to struggle through -
It's been a wonderful year.

"Last summer was the shortest one,
Of sleeping late and
having fun."

T.H.S. cheerleaders proudly display their new uniforms.

Coach Keller gives the football team instructions during summer practice.

Larry Kuhnert, Tom Jones, Billy Arnold, and Jim Buchanan help clean the school in preparation for the coming year.

Brantley Oxford has not quite learned to play the trumpet.

The new members of the 66'ers-67'ers look lovely on the first day of school.

"September brought us
tests galore,
With promises of many

Charles Haley is one of the many new students at THS this year.

Judy Rutherford and "Big Sister," Marcia Minnich enjoy 66-67'ers initiation.

Viking fans show great enthusiasm as the football team rolls on to victory.

"By October we all knew,
The fun we could look forward to."

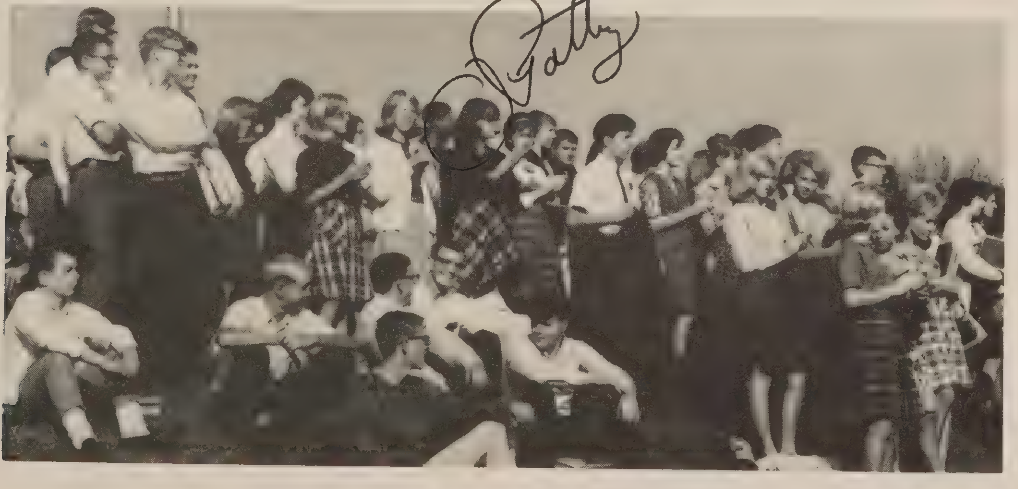
Mary Jean Hamilton and Finley Harrison think—
"Ain't love grand?"

Patty

Sandy

T.H.S. girls really "whoop it up" at an assembly program.



Patty

T.H.S. students watch on during the first outdoor pep session.

"And to the 'cats' we proved again,
That T. H. S. will always win!"

Jean Stair makes a salutation to Mrs. Wheeler, the cheerleading sponsor.

Mr. Pierce gave an inspiring talk at the pep session.

Kathy Henard, V-T Queen, places our trophy of victory in the trophy case.

Junior girls help build the beautiful float sponsored by the Class of '67.

Linda Couchman and Nick Graybeal enjoy the Keyette Party after the game.

The IV-ettes, Sandy Beckham, Debby Henniger, Sandra Tickel, and JoAnn Sieber, perform in the V-T pep session.

All good things must come to an end.....
And so, our V-T Week ended in victory

Dave Rutherford, Bill Beeler, Frank Walling, and Kim Bolling demonstrate their talent as cheerleaders.

"November brought us
lots of joys,
With lots of pep, and lots of noise."

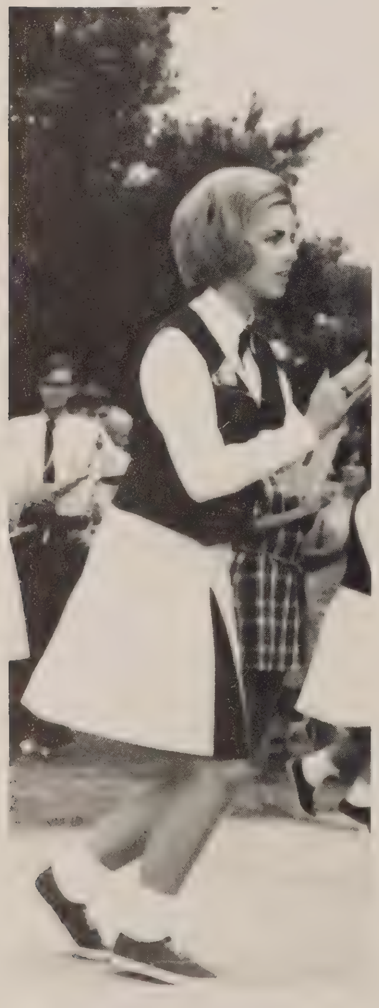
"Little Caesar and the Euterpeans" have made quite a mark at THS.

Senior girls enjoy a program of folk music presented by Shirley Street.



Head cheerleader, Jayne Rodefer sets a fine example for the rest of the squad.

Obviously something amusing has happened during a solemn moment.

Sandy Beckham takes time out to decorate for Christmas.

"December gave a needed rest, Before those rough semester tests."

"Little Caesar," Pete Anderson, took THS by storm at the Christmas dance.

Santa Claus, Randy Jessee, undoubtedly has a treat in store for someone.

Joann Sieber is about to give up any hope of snow.

Kay Lynn Barrett assists David Massengill with his coat during "Twirp Week."

Each day conceals some moral thought,
For life is a school, you know;
And with our time, our
Future's bought,
We beckon it to grow

The latest style is modeled by Diane Ferris.

T.H.S. fans watch Viking Roundballers roll to victory.

And with the ending of the year
The Proms and dances,
gladness bring,
Voices ringing loud and clear
Brought the warmest days
of spring.

Bobby Stoots and Marcia Minnich prepare to leave for the "Sadie Hawkins" Dance.

What does David Snyder find so funny?

And so, Dear Diary, we say
good-bye
To this another year;
While in our hearts the
memories lie,
and in our eyes a tear.

Proudly stands our Alma-Mater . . .

Good-bye

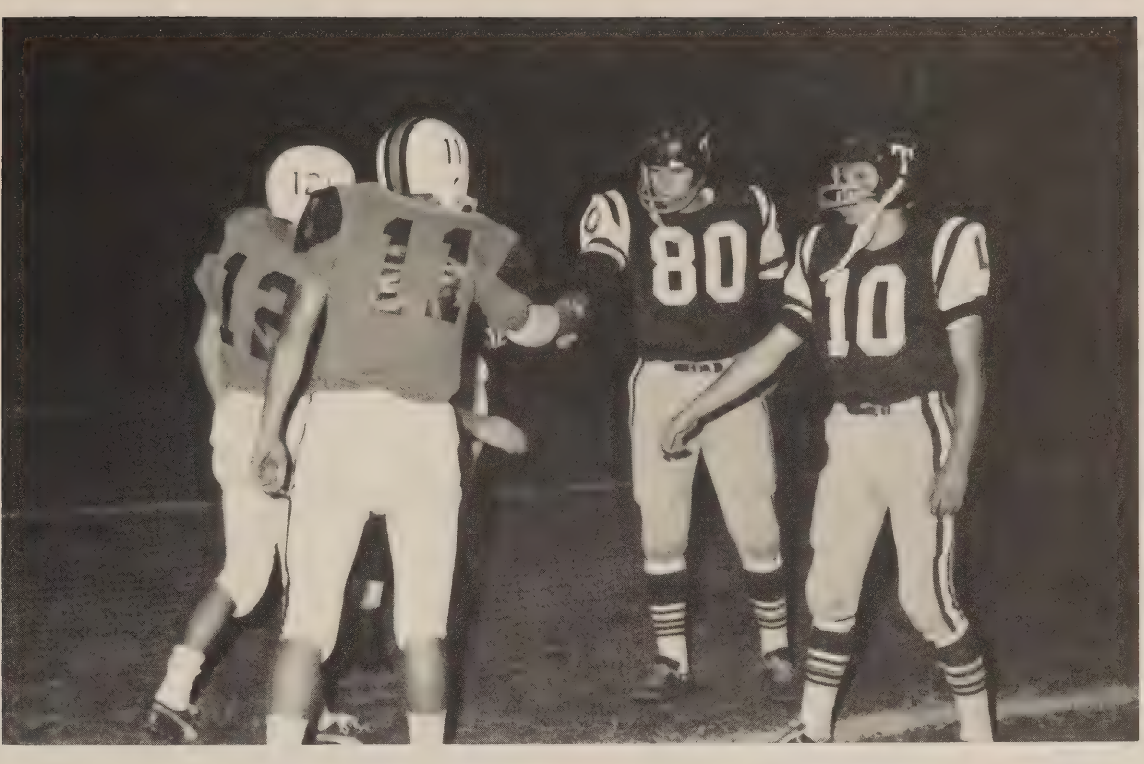
VIKINGS SHOW IMPROVEMENT

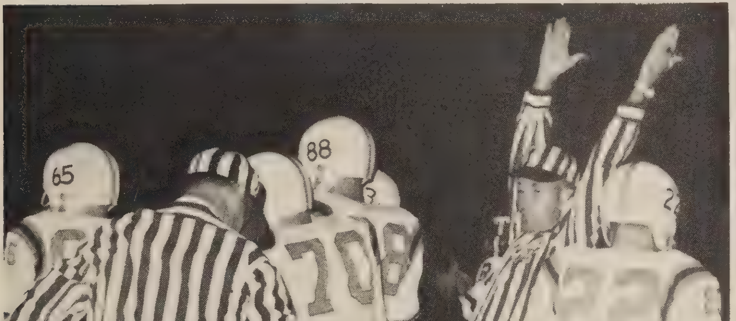
The 1965 Viking team showed fans a favorable change this season. Under the capable direction of Head Coach Fred Keller, Coach Tom Hundley, and Coach Bill Bingham, the Norsemen turned in an impressive 5-4-1 worksheet.

In the season's opener the Vikings powered their way to an easy victory over an outclassed Jonesboro team. The following week the Norsemen won over Greeneville. Baylor Prep then handed THS its first loss with a last minute field goal. Recovering from this loss, the defensive minded Vikings held a state-ranked Johnson City team to a scoreless tie. In their next game the Norsemen were defeated by a powerful Sevierville team. Returning home for their next game, the Vikings upset state-ranked Elizabethton by a margin of 13-7. At the end of the Erwin game, the Norsemen found themselves on the short end of a 0- 6 margin in a heart-breaking upset. The following week, however, the Vikings clinched second place in the Big Seven by defeating Morristown. A highly favored Kingsport then rolled past the injured Vikings. In the final game of the season, Fred Keller's Vikings trounced the outclassed Bearcats by a score of 27 to 13 and regained the coveted City Championship.

With Charlie Wolfe and Delmar Harrington leading the way, David Booher returns a Elizabethton punt for a TD.



Al Parker and Larry Rose serve as co-captains during Morristown game.



Randy Jessee scores the first TD of the year in the Vikings' opener with Jonesboro.

Fred Keller discusses the Norsemen's defense with Mike Burnette.

BASKETBALL

Ernie Trosper

Paced by stalwarts Al Parker, Ralph Shook, Bobby Stoots, James Meade, and Ben Rutherford; the 1965-66 Viking team overcame a lack of height and experience to turn in a commendable 10-13 record. Under the direction of Coach Ernie Trosper, the Norsemen improved steadily as the season went on. The highlight of the season was an upset over our north side rivals.

Many new talents were discovered throughout the season. Among these were Jimmy Countiss, Nick Graybeal, Richard Brown, and Marty Winchell. The new varsity men offer a bright outlook for next year's team.

CLASS RINGS

Shortly before the Christmas holidays, our anxiously awaited class rings arrived. In one short day we became a true part of Tennessee High School and her tradition.

Although the ring itself has great symbolic value, the specific parts each hold a meaning of their own. The school, chosen for historical and sentimental reasons, reminds us of fond and cherished school days. The size and ruggedness of the ring are to depict our strength and growth both physically and mentally. Our identification encircles the stone in a final touch of beauty and richness of character.

The shield represents the honor of the school, an outward symbol of the high ideals that our Alma Mater holds for each of us. The axes represent the constant willingness that must be part of every student to see that the honor of the shield is kept forever.

NEW SCHOOL FREEDOMS AND

CLASS OF '69

Feeling small and unimportant, awed by disdainful looks from the upperclassmen, and completely lost, we entered Tennessee High as Freshmen. Much to our surprise we were accepted by the Seniors and given a chance to become a genuine part of the student body. We willingly endeavored to uphold the rules of the school, aware of the new freedom and self-government that they presented us.

In addition to the satisfaction and newness of high school we knew that now we would have to make our own decisions.

But along with these personal improvements we dreaded the projects, term papers, and semester exams. And, just as we had been told, they were almost more than we could take.

OFFERS NEW NEW PROBLEMS

With great enthusiasm and anticipation we awaited the arrival of V-T week and participated whole-heartedly in the Twirp Week activities. It was an inspiration for us freshmen to see the undying loyalty the student body displayed and the encouragement each individual offered.

It is somewhat with sadness that we pass our freshman year with all its memories. But we know that the best years of our education are yet to come and that we have only one more year until we, too, are upperclassmen.

OBJECTIVES

TO DEVELOP initiative and leadership
TO PROVIDE experience in living and working together
TO SERVE the school and community
TO COOPERATE with others
TO PREPARE for useful citizenship
TO ACCEPT AND PROMOTE the following ideals:
  To give primarily to the human and spiritual, rather than to the material values of life;
  To encourage the daily living of the Golden Rule in all human relationships;
  To promote the adoption and application of higher standards in scholarship, sportsmanship, and social contacts;
  To develop, by precept and example, a more intelligent, aggressive, and serviceable citizenship;
  To provide a practical means to form enduring friendships, to render unselfish service, and to build better communities;
  To cooperate in creating and maintaining that sound public opinion and high idealism which makes possible the increase of righteousness, justice, patriotism, and good will.

THE JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE CREED

"We, the members of the Junior Classical League covenant to hand on the torch of Classical Civilization in the modern world. We believe an acquaintance with the Civilization of Greece and Rome will help us understand and appraise this world of today, which is indebted to ancient civilization in its government, laws, literature, languages and arts."

Lynne

JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE

The Tennessee High Chapter of the National Junior Classical League provides members with creative, educational, and entertaining activities which broaden the students' concept of Latin. Members are enabled to see classical culture related to their own in a variety of ways.

The purpose of the Junior Classical League is to encourage an interest in and appreciation of the civilization, language, literature, and art of ancient Greece and Rome. It seeks to give young people some understanding of the debt of our own culture to that of classical antiquity.

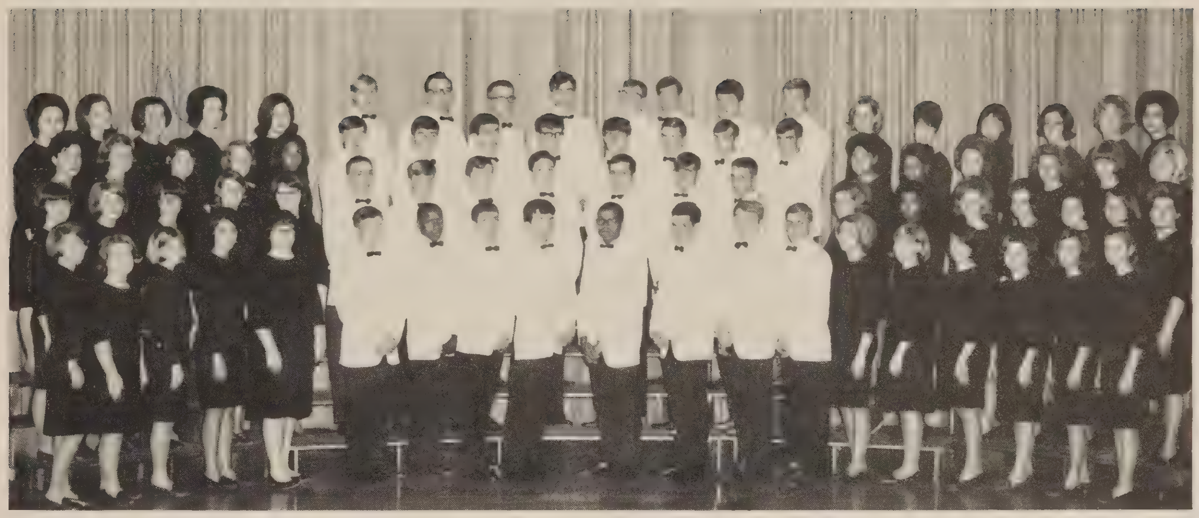
HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

Officers: Shepard, Treas.; Leonard, Reporter; Tickle, Sec.; Richards, Pres.; Williamson, Sec.; Iris Lee, Vice Pres.

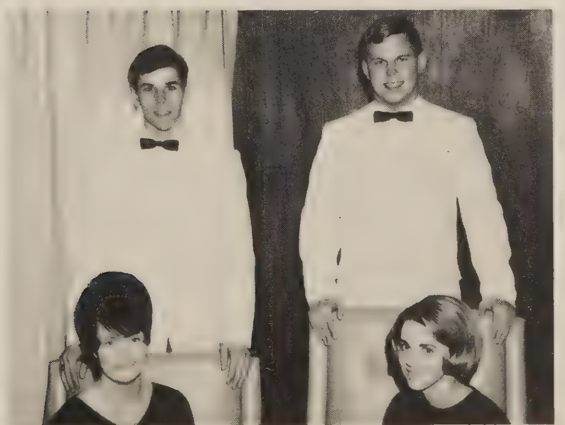
The Home Economics Club, under the direction of Mrs. Wheeler, has as its objective to further each member's interest in Home Economics. They serve others, including Tennessee High well through their service projects. These include taking a Santa Pal and making typewriter covers for the typing room.



TENNESSEE HIGH CHORUS

The Tennessee High Chorus is a proud and capable musical group. This is a result of many long and hard hours of rehearsal with Mr. Nicar.

They have presented programs at many churches and civic clubs in our community. Their activities include a Christmas Concert and an operetta in the spring.



Officers, seated: Grayson, Rodefer. Standing: Stoots, Cook.

Merle Devault

Phil Kistner
Band Manager

One of the prime objectives of the band is the promotion of music and its appreciation. Each year it serves the school and community by insuring good public relations.

The band develops individual responsibility and a very high moral character among its members. The band hopes to attain self-discipline among every member of the organization.

Band activities include participation in the Southeastern Band Festival, U.T. (State) Band Festival, Christmas Concert, Clinics and Contests, Spring Concert, playing for football and basketball games and parades, the Band Banquet, and summer band camp.

Jane,

I'm so glad we got to be good friends this year. I didn't know you were such a great girl. I'll never forget all the great things we did, or all the great things we're gonna do, See ya around.

Love,
Ellen
